This booklet is designed to be copied (front to back if possible!) and cut in half. I leave the prompts very simple and open ended and talk through the math after giving them time to illustrate and label. The questions that I ask are based on the prompts themselves as well as what students think aloud.

Enjoy!

Ketchen’s Kindergarten ©Arianne Ketchen, 2012
http://www.ketchenskindergarten.blogspot.com

Created for classroom use. May be copied or reproduced.

Please do not share or give away any part of or the whole packet as your own creation.
my August math journal

By: ______________________

my August math journal

By: ______________________
I can draw a circle.

I can draw a circle.
I can draw 2 circles.
I can draw three circles.

I can draw three circles.
I can draw 1 small circle and 2 large circles.
I can draw 5 circles and color them nicely.

I can draw 5 circles and color them nicely.
Color the circles.
Color the squares.
Color the triangles.

Color the triangles.
Color the rectangles.
Color the cones.
I can draw a square.
I can draw a triangle.
I can draw a rectangle.
I can draw a cone.
I can draw my favorite shape.