Making Our Number Talks STRONGER!!

Feedback & Reflections

Let's Try...

- "If you say alone?"
- "Introduce listen"
Number Talk

I would like to defend the answer

I disagree with you, \textit{name}, because

I agree with you, \textit{name}, because

Could you say more?

I have a question about

I would like to revise my thinking because

I like how you explained this because
MATH
1. Try new strategies.
2. Decide when to REGROUP.
3. Check answers.

{ Academic Conversation }
1. Eyes on the Speaker.
2. Speak in Complete Sentences.
3. Respectfully Disagree.
4. Build onto Others' Ideas.
Number Talk Jobs

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Job</th>
<th>Task</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Facilitator</td>
<td>Teacher leads the Number Talk</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Interruption Leader</td>
<td>&quot;—, please stop interrupting.&quot;</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3-2-1 Leader</td>
<td>&quot;3... 2... 1...&quot;</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Paraphraser</td>
<td>&quot;I heard — say...&quot;</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conversation Leaders</td>
<td>&quot;Could you please repeat?&quot;</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>share their ideas</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>